

Walk Tacoma: Hilltop Black-owned Businesses

<https://goo.gl/maps/xTEF2NNenNox1jUa8>

Stop 1: Mr. Mac's Ltd.

Morris L. McCollum "Mr. Mac" born April 27, 1927 in Denver Colorado. Upon graduating high school, Mac joined the Navy and served on the USS Golden City in World War II. Inspired by his mother's years in retail, after leaving the Navy, Mac left college in Nebraska to pursue his own career in retail. Johnny Haas recruited Mac west to Tacoma to run his General store. After 2 years, Mac was able to open up his first store in Tacoma by the name of Mac The Knife. And the rest they say...is history. Mr. Mac cared about the Tacoma Hilltop deeply. He began with K Street Boosters Club, then the Upper Tacoma Business District and later the Hilltop Business Association. In 2015 he received the NAACP lifetime achievement award. In 2016 he received The Hilltop Hero award which honor's Hilltop Legends.

<https://tacomammac.com/> | Facebook

Stop 2: T.U.P.A.C.: Tacoma Urban Performing Arts Center

Tacoma Urban Performing Arts Center's envisions a future where our students will be globally recognized as T.U.P.A.C. artists by the content of their character, their poise, the generosity of their spirit and the phenomenal contributions they make to their communities and the planet.

T.U.P.A.C.'s mission is to provide our most deserving youth world class opportunities to achieve Artistic Excellence in the Performing Arts through:

- Community classes and Pre-professional classical ballet training
- National and international mentors and intergenerational guest artists

- Whole person development and community give back

<https://tacomaupac.org/> | Facebook | Instagram

Stop 3: Sam & Terry's Barbershop

Sam & Terry's Barbershop was established in 1958 by Sam Daniels and Larry Terry. After meeting at barber school in Texas, Sam and Larry both moved with their families to Tacoma. They worked at Fat's The Barbershop on Broadway for a few years before deciding to start their own venture. Through the years, and multiple locations, Sam & Terry's has served as a gathering place for the community.

Facebook

Stop 4: Love By the Slice

Cassandra is the founding CEO and lead baker at Love by the Slice. For nearly 20 years, Cassandra has created thousands of memorable cakes and treats to commemorate special events and occasions. She's also crafted scrumptious take-home desserts available fresh daily from Love by the Slice. Not only is she passionate about baking, but Cassandra believes in the power of fine craftsmanship and hard work as evidenced by her unique designs and vignettes. Her vision is to empower young people in her community through job creation and opportunities to learn the business from the inside out. By giving people a chance to be creative and thoughtful, Love by the Slice is more than a bakery.

www.lovebytheslice.com/ | Facebook | Instagram

Stop 5: Bob's Bar-B-Q Pit

Founded by Robert and Elizabeth Littles in 1948 Bob's Bar-B-Q continues to serve real pit smoked barbecue. Using recipes passed down for generations, with an original sauce and special seasonings, let's just say, "If you don't Get Bob's You Gon' Be Mad!" The best pit smoked Ribs, Chicken, Pulled Pork, Beef Brisket & Hotlinks. Dine in or take out and enjoy the taste of real barbecue!

bobsbarbqtogo.com/ | Facebook